Customer Reviews

Being from Washington DC, it is fantastic to see a book that showcases DC's growing food scene. It contains amazing recipes from top restaurants in the area (most, if not all, are very doable at home), beautiful pictures, and a lot of helpful tips. This is not one of those cookbooks where you do not have any of the ingredients at home and do not understand how to make the recipe even after reading the directions - it's written in plain language for the home cook with great tips. Perfect for any food lover or Washingtonian.

This is a fantastic book for anyone who loves to cook and eat good food. I love to hear the stories connected with the chefs and the dishes they create and the photos are mouthwateringly gorgeous. Put this on you holiday list--a great gift!

In the past, I've given cookbooks related to local cuisine to friends and family who live in different regions. I'm thrilled to give this cookbook to my entire family this year because it connects great recipes to great restaurants to great stories! All curated with beautiful photos! Brilliant! I'm excited to try to make and taste my own versions of some of my favorite dishes (especially Fried Green Tomatoes from Founding Farmers!).

Kanter reviews several DC-area restaurants. The list is worth the price of admission. The narratives provide just enough introduction. I highly recommend this book to anyone who spends much time in the area.
