I really do love these notepads, I have one for meal planning from the same people, and I love this one almost as much. This is a great way to keep track of all the little things I need to do around the house but always manage to forget about. I like having a dedicated place for household to do stuff only, it makes it easier to find what I'm looking for. Also this has a magnet on the back, so it can easily go up on the refrigerator.

This pad is a great concept. I always have a list of things to do around the house. I thought if I got this and let my husband make his own list, he would be more apt to get things done. I was wrong! Procrastinators always find a way of postponing the inevitable! I love the pad and am hopeful the concept will catch on with my husband one day.

I have always been a fan of the Knock Knock meal planning pad but we don't seem to be using this one as much. Most of their products are fun but not so useful. I do like the heavy magnet that keeps it attached to the fridge and it is a high quality paper.

I've been wanting something like this for a very long time. There is constantly a list of household to-do's floating around in my head. It make it so much easier to have a list I can go to when I have some spare time. I especially appreciate the shopping list at the bottom.

Another great pad for anyone that has trouble keeping track of chores and things to do around the house. My partner and I work busy jobs and we use this to make sure that we don't forget the chores around the house. Complete with a handle magnet to attach this to the fridge where it is easy to see, this is great to keep your home organized and clean.

always great to have some extra push to do household chores!!! Also like to leave it lying around for husband to see...we like to hide sheets of things to do for the other to find, on the mirror, in the fridge, under the pillows..this makes it more fun! And sometimes, things even get done!

My wife loves these pads as they help her to stay organized. This is the 3rd pad (we have "out of" and "meals" ones, too). If you like to be organized, these are well made and are handy.

This note pad helps me not only stay organized, but also helps motivate me to get things done! It has a total of 28 potential tasks to complete which is obtainable without being overwhelming.
